

The association community has already raised numerous concerns about the new regulations that remain a subject of speculation, including exactly which transmissions the FCC would interpret as commercial in nature.

This proposal is inappropriate and unnecessary and the Iowa Dental Association requests that the FCC abandon this proposal.